

Branson 5-day Holiday

5 Days: November 4-8, 2010

*This travel package planned by Denise Hovden
-Baumler, escorted by Deb Harkness.*

Embark from the ordinary and join us for a 5-day trip to Branson. Take in 7 of Branson's shows (and yet another, if you wish, on your own), enjoy great dining and more.

November 4 we pick up through our guaranteed departure cities as we travel to Boonville, MO. We'll enjoy a special evening of dinner & entertainment at The Settler's Inn Log Home. Our hotel features an indoor pool, whirlpool, exercise room and free high-speed Internet access. A Russell Stover Outlet Store is adjacent to the hotel if you need to pick up some chocolates for that special someone (or for your own chocolate fix!).

November 5 enjoy breakfast before we depart for Branson. This afternoon The Allen Family's Simply Christmas Show is on our agenda. The Allens (all ten of them) live in their bus 365 days and perform 275 shows, each year across North America. They stopped in Branson four holiday seasons ago, liked it, came back in 2008, and decided to make Branson their "home for the holidays." "Simply Christmas" is a musical program that takes audiences through time to Christmas celebrations at various periods in history.

After the show we'll check in at our hotel for the next 3 nights, which features 2 indoor pools, whirlpools, guest laundry, elevator and interior corridors. We'll have dinner before tonight's show with The Hughes Brothers Christmas Show. Brothers Marty, Jason, Adam, Ryan and Andy perform dynamic vocals with an array of great songs and mesmerize you with their energetic dancing.

November 6 following breakfast, Dalena Ditto will entertain us. Originally from Iowa, Dalena performs your favorite country, pop and ballads with "The Boys." The show also features comedian and ventriloquist Patty Davidson. This afternoon the Gatlin Brothers and Debby Boone team up to celebrate Christmas at the Mansion Theatre! Dinner is at one of Branson's most unique dining experiences.

Then we're entertained by The Osmonds at Music City Center. The Osmond family has returned to Branson to celebrate the music and memories of their 50 years of entertainment. The show is filled with excitement, joy, thrills, laughs and even a little bit of magic. Fresh off a sold-out tour, this performance is absolutely exhilarating.

November 7 enjoy breakfast before a morning of shopping and lunch in Branson's quaint downtown.

More than 50 shops offer crafts, souvenirs, clothing, shoes and more, plus an old fashioned Dick's 5 & 10. Choose from at least 5 cafés for lunch. This afternoon we take in Cassandra the Voice of an Angel. Cassandra opened in 2009 to rave reviews and has quickly become Branson's NEW smash hit! The show features Cassandra's profoundly beautiful voice and the largest live orchestra in Branson, with 10 members playing 20 different instruments. As if that were not enough, Cassandra's alter ego, Aunt Erma, entertains with hilarious original comedy. After dinner we enjoy Clay Cooper's Country Music Express. Along with a 6 piece band, 6 dancers, 6 feature solo vocalists, a comedian, a trick roper/gun twirler/whip artist and 6-year old Colt Cooper! Clay Cooper's magnetism and voice are the common thread that cleverly binds all the amazing diversity of the individual talents of the cast members. Together, the result is a very polished entertainment experience for all ages!
