If you're a "picker", an American Pickers watcher, or just enjoy looking at antiques for the day, you'll want to join us as we head to Des Moines.

First stop will be at Iowa State Fairgrounds for the 2nd annual, 3-day Junk Jubilee with its motto of: "Hunt – Rescue – Repurpose!" What is the Junk Jubilee you ask? The Jubilee hosts juried "junk" vendors selling vintage finds, beautiful antiques, one-of-a-kind items and artisan-repurposed pieces.

We head downtown for an included lunch at Spaghetti Works. After lunch we'll wander through John and Mary Pappajohn Sculpture Park in downtown Des Moines. The 4.4 acre park opened to visitors in the fall of 2009 and features artwork of 21 of the world's most celebrated artists. Located within a major crossroads of the urban grid, the park creates a pedestrian-friendly entrance to downtown Des Moines. This accessible setting, coupled with the skilled landscape design and caliber of the art, makes it unlike any other sculpture park in the United States.

There's more picking to be done as we visit West End Architectural Salvage. Their goal is to insure Des Moines area residents and visitors have a successful search through "salvage" items from larger cities and foreign countries. No matter how far you travel you'll never forget the experience this store has to offer! Their passion is rescuing craftsmanship from the past and offering it to you for renovations or creative repurposing. Someone's trash is always someone else's treasure! There are four floors (plus the lower level) to explore.
