

Tulip Time in Pella

1 Day: Thursday, May 6, 2010

This travel package planned by Clara Hill, escorted by Mary Egger.

Mark your calendars and plan to join us as we celebrate the 75th Anniversary of Pella's Tulip Time. Vibrant colors paint this beautiful town as hundreds of thousands of tulips unfold in celebration of spring. Come along to savor the sights, sounds, smells and tastes of this colorful Iowa tradition.

Enjoy a delicious lunch served to your table at the Tulip Tea Room. This afternoon we have reserved grandstand seating for street scrubbing, the Volks Parade and Dutch dancers (dressed in native costumes, right down to their wooden shoes). Explore the Molengracht Canal area, reminiscent of the canals in the Netherlands as well as crafts in the park, Pella's quaint shops or take in some of the many optional activities. A special surprise is also planned for you.

Your 1-day Tulip Time in Pella package includes: Luxury motor coach transportation (service to the curb without parking hassles or long walks!), reserved grandstand seating, lunch (inclusive of tax and meal gratuity), plus a surprise.
